

The Venue

The History of Diving Museum is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to collecting, preserving, displaying and interpreting artifacts, antiques, books, documents, photographs and oral history relative to the history of diving. We tell the international story of man's attempts to explore, understand and venture under the sea.

Immerse yourself in 4,000 years of diving history! Featuring the world's largest international collection of diving helmets and artifacts, divers and non-divers alike will enjoy this interactive museum telling the story of mankind's quest to explore under the sea.

Tribute to the Commercial Diving Industry

The History of Diving Museum will be the home of the Commercial Diving Hall of Fame Monument for two years beginning in March 2010. The Museum is proud to make this their first temporary exhibit.

Sponsorship opportunities for this special exhibit are available. Donations of equipment, artifacts and other items conveying the history of commercial diving are welcomed. Please contact the Museum for details.

The ADCI Commercial Diving Hall of Fame, authorized in 2003, has been established to recognize and honor individuals whose dedication and accomplishments have significantly contributed to commercial diving.

Commercial Diving is an industry that is fascinating, demanding, and essential to our way of life. Join Phil Newsum as he explores the history of commercial diving answering the questions:

- ♦What does it take to be a commercial diver?
- ♦What do commercial divers really do?
- ♦Why is commercial diving important?
